GREETINGS

Because of the interest in the first edition of the family history and because of changes occurring, I thought it only appropriate that we print up a few additional copies and call it the second edition of the families and descendants of Herman or (Harmon) Henry and Anna Catherine or (Katherine) Hauptmann, who with their seven children migrated from across the Atlantic and settled in Southeastern Nebraska, which in 1856 was a raw, untamed, wide open frontier.

Although these old Pilgrims came from what used to be Prussia, I never knew one of them to ever wear a monocle; they never had time for nonsense; the stiffness in their necks was not from arrogance, but rather from sleeping out on the hard ground. They had work to do; they built their homes and raised their children by the sweat of their brows, seldom if ever complaining, and with the enthusiasm of a young child with a new toy.

They scratched up this old earth, tilled the soil from before daylight until after dark, and then there were always chores to do. Day in and day out, year in and year out, they didn't quit until they dropped, then they prayed to the good Lord above to please spare them just a little more time, something needs fixing, something needs taking care of, and no one to do it.

Always playing a game with the weather, trying to keep one step ahead of her. One eye on the plow and the other searching the Heavens, hoping for a cloud or for a little breeze to blow one away.

Vacation and rest, not in your life -- there's livestock that needs caring for, the hay is rotting in the fields, the woodbox is empty, and always a hundred and one things to do.

The only vacations and rest for these hardy old Pioneers and sons of Pioneers was a reunion in Campcreek Cemetery, six feet under at life's end, and for some it was Auburn, Brock, Denver, Fremont, Glenrock, Lincoln, Los Angeles, Montana, Nebraska City, Neligh, Omaha, Peru, South Dakota, Wyoming and Salt Lake City.

We have served our country well; we are now serving her, and will continue to serve whether in peace or in war. I never knew an objector or a deserter from among our ranks, and I don't ever expect to. Amidst the battles, the ups and the downs, the good and the bad, the true and the false, we shall anchor our feet firmly in the stirrups, and with steady hands on the reins, and our eyes focused on the mountain tops, we'll press on.

I hope and pray, and I like to believe that we are all, each and every one of us, ABOUT OUR FATHER'S BUSINESS.

One of the earliest Hauptmann immigrants to this country was a Henry Hauptmann, who came over from the Palatinate, an area west of the Rhine River, quite possibly following in the wake of many who had found a haven in Pennsylvania at the invitation of William Penn.

This Hauptmann family boarded the ship Restauration at Rotterdam, and set sail for Philadelphia, arriving there in the year of 1747. They were probably not related to us, but it does show that Hauptmanns were also very early settlers in America. In religion I have known Hauptmanns who were Protestants, others are Roman Catholics, and still others embrace Judaism. Some of them are very religious, while others are completely indifferent.

In occupations there are farmers, doctors, lawyers, policemen, highway patrolmen, educators, business people, and various other tradesmen.

Sooner or later, the question arises, are we any relation to the late BRUNO HAUPTMANN, and so far as is known the answer is NO. I understand that he came from a different province and at a much later date, even though we all have been carrying his cross these many years.

My father said he knew of no living relatives left in the old country. I think perhaps to acquaint you with the family, we will first list the censuses of 1860, 1870, and 1880, of Otoe County Nebraska and just ramble on from there.

It is said the name HAUPTMANN means CAPTAIN, HEAD MAN, HIGH MAN, and MAN AT THE HEAD OF THE FIELD. Whatever, our branch of the family originated in the old country using two Ns. There was also a HAUPTMAN branch over there, a SEBASTIAN HAUPTMAN, spelled with one N, having a coat of arms and living in Prague, in the year 1571. So as not to confuse anyone I used two Ns for all those born in Europe, and one N for all HAUPTMANS born in America. The mail will still be delivered whether you use NO Ns, ONE N, TWO Ns or THREE Ns. Today in America most all HAUPTMANS spell their names using just the one N, as most of us feel even then it is long enough.

Perhaps our ancestry goes back to HERMANN HAUPTMANN, who on December 31, 1637, accepted a CANNONICAL POST AT THE PARISH CHURCH IN MUNSTEREIFEL, GERMANY and appeared there on many important occasions thereafter.

In all of my research I failed to turn up any military connection, even though one meaning of our name is CAPTAIN. My findings are that we have been mostly tillers of the soil, back through the ages. But never underestimate the importance of the commonplace farmer, for it is he who has provided food for civilizations since the beginning of man, with no letup in sight.

A sincere effort has been made to eliminate errors. Be as it may, some are bound to rear their ugly little heads, so please forgive me. I feel that my interest in bringing this book to you is fulfilling a desire to present the HAUPTMAN family to you from yesterday and today and for tomorrow. So we'll tell it as it is, and with this in mind, I dedicate this book to all who toil under the banner of the OX

(not really), because we are already toiling under the banner of CHRIST, so to all HAUPTMANS, their relatives and friends everywhere, and to our children and grandchildren. . . CHEERS.

HISTORIOGRAPHY

The Hauptmann Coat of Arms illustrated on the cover was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Hauptmann Coat of Arms design can be found in SIEBMACHER'S WAPPENBUCH. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the ARMS (shield) is as follows:

"G. clevsches Rad, bewinkelt im
1. Quartier von einem Ochsenkopf, im 2.
von 3 Sternen, im 3. von 3 Eicheln, im 4.
von einem Gitter, Alles g. in #. "

When translated the Arms description is:

"In black a gold carbuncle placed over the following: In the 1st quarter an oxhead, in the 2nd three stars, in the 3rd three acorns, in the 4th a lattice, all in gold. "

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

"# Ochsenkopf mit g. Hornern. "

A translation of the Crest description is:

"Black ox head with gold horns. "

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A motto was not recorded with the Hauptmann Coat of Arms.

To whom it may concern:

My acquaintanceship with the William Henry Hauptman family was during a period of five years, from 1938 to 1943. It was in Julian, Nebraska (Nemaha County), that I was privileged to know the family. I came to Julian in the autumn of 1938 as minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. At that time the Julian and Downs Chapel Churches constituted the only Methodist Episcopal Church, South charge in the state of Nebraska. They were situated in the St. Joseph, Missouri District of the Missouri Conference. The Downs Chapel Church was some six and one-fourth miles north and east of Julian.

In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Methodist Episcoapl Church and the Methodist Protestant Church were united in what came to be known as the Methodist Church. In the year 1967, or thereabouts, the Methodist Church was united with the Evangelical-United Brethren Church. It then came to be known as the United Methodist Church. It is so at the present time.

My pastorate at Julian-Downs Chapel continued from the year 1938 to the year 1943. At that time I was transferred to the Valley-Elk City charge in Douglas County, Nebraska.

During my sojourn in Julian I came to be acquainted with many members of the Hauptman family. In particular, I was acquainted with the William H. Hauptman family. Mr. William H. Sr. was not living at the time I was assigned to Julian. He had passed away in 1937. I knew the widow, Laura Hauptman, very well. She and her daughter Hazel Ruyle and son William Hauptman lived in Julian. They attended the Methodist Church. I was in their home very often. I recall that a close friend of Mrs. Hauptman's was Mrs. Viola Leahy. In December of 1971 I was called upon to conduct the funeral service for Mrs. Leahy in Auburn, Nebraska. Mrs. Hauptman had passed away a few years previous to that.

When I was in Julian, Mrs. Hauptman had a daughter, Velma, Mrs. Harry Peck living in Hamburg, Iowa. Some time after I had left Julian, Mrs. Hauptman lived for a time in Hamburg. I recall that when she was in Hamburg, for a time she took care of a sister-in-law of mine. The sister-in-law was Mrs. Lee (Lillie) Smith. She was in poor health for a number of years.

Mrs. Hauptman had a son Leslie Ruyle. He and his wife Mildred and two daughters lived on a farm just a few miles north and east of Julian. The farm was in Otoe County, just across the Nemaha-Otoe County line. I visited in the Leslie Ruyle home quite often. On one occasion, I recall, a young couple came from Nebraska City to be married. They had secured their marriage license in Nebraska City, Otoe County. There was a requirement that a couple be married in the same county where they had received their marriage license. Inasmuch as Julian was in Nemaha County, it was necessary that the young man and woman receive their marriage vows in Otoe County. Consequently, we went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ruyle for the wedding service.

World War II was going on at the time I was in Julian. Opportunities for travel were none too good. It was possible, at times, to make arrangements to travel with other persons who were taking a trip. As I remember it, William (Bill) Hauptman and his friend Steve Millèt had made arrangements with a family in Omaha, to travel to California with them. Bill and Steve were to help with driving the car. At the time, Bill's sister, Hazel, had employment in Omaha. I visited with her, there, occasionally. I took Bill and Steve to Omaha to meet with the family for the trip to California.

As mentioned above, after leaving Julian in 1943, I was assigned to the Valley-Elk City Methodist charge. I was there from 1943 to 1946. World War II was ended during the time I was at Valley-Elk City. A church service was held in Valley with gratitude for the war's end. One incident that I recall very vividly took place when I was at Valley.

On a Sunday morning there were visitors who attended the worship service. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) and (Joyce) Hauptman, and a small son, William III, and Bill's mother Laura. They came forward at the close of the service and the small son received the Sacrament of Baptism. I understand that the small son is now a grown young man and has a small son, William IV, also two daughters.

My acquaintanceship and friendship with the William Henry Hauptman family has continued through the years. I hear from one or another of the family occasionally. And at times our paths cross along the way and we can visit again and call to mind the good days of yesteryear.

With Love and Affection.

HOMESTEADING

The figure of 160 acres was a handy one. Used early in the history of our country. In 1804, public lands were sold to settlers in parcels of 160 acres to help pay the debts of the Revolutionary War.

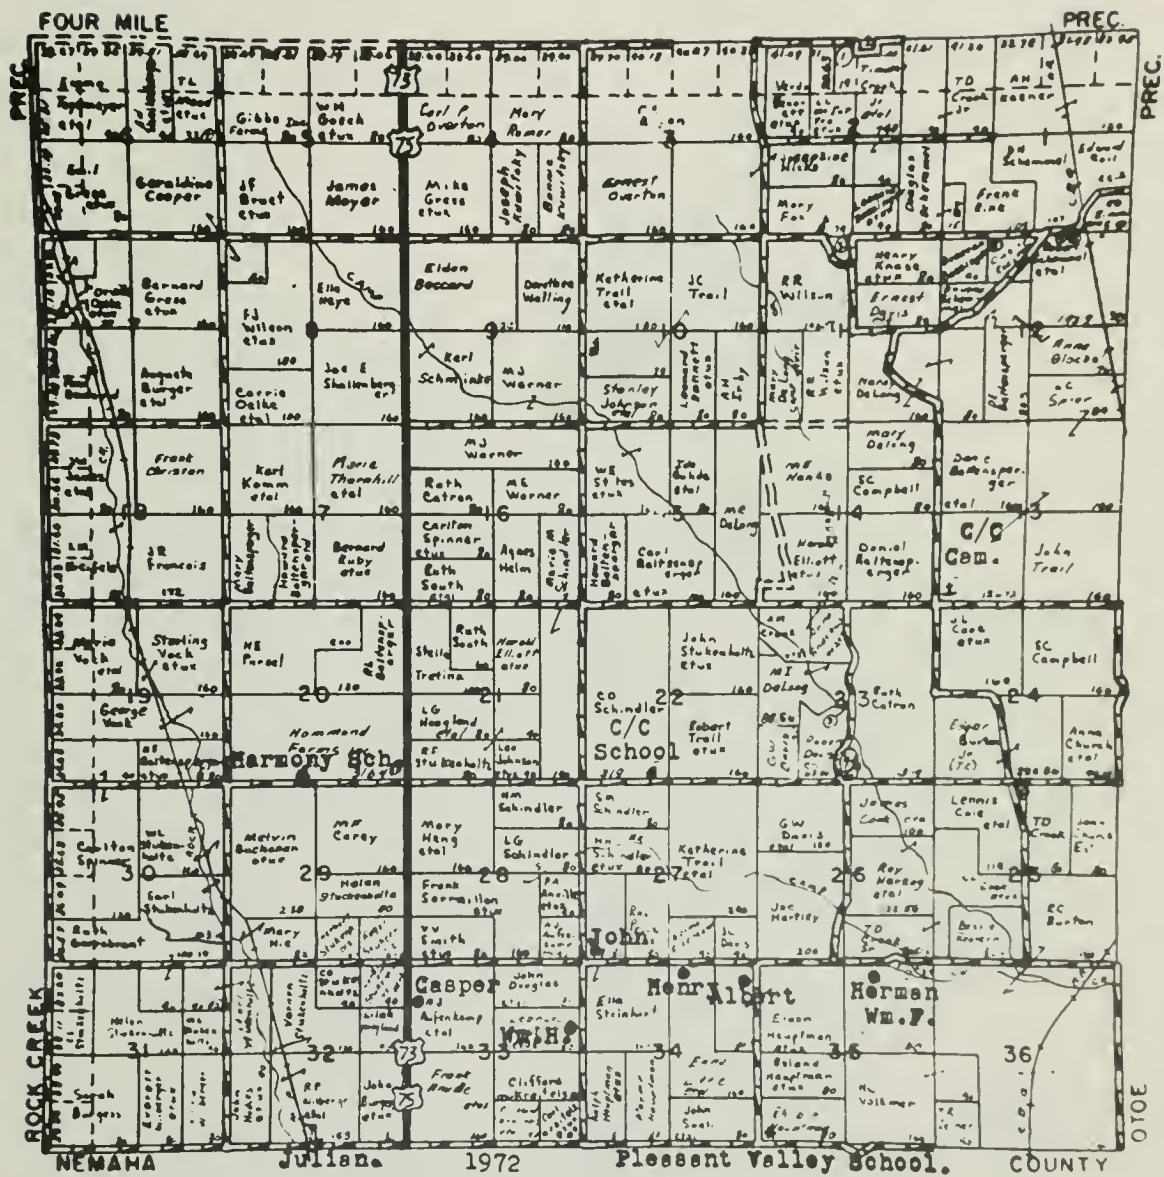

In 1841 Congress passed the Preemption Act which permitted most adult persons to "pre-empt" 160 acres with the prospect that at some later date he would pay for his land at a price to be determined by the government.

The Homestead Act of 1862 let adults acquire 160 acres of land and get title to it by living on it for five years and doing some cultivation. By 1891 public land began to get a little scarce, and a Homestead Limitation Act was passed so that anyone owning 160 acres could not acquire additional land under the Homestead Act.

The Reclamation Act of 1902 was a continuation of the U.S. policy of encouragement to settle the lands of the West by making arid lands habitable through irrigation.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

In genealogy, as in every other subject of interest and importance to mankind, there is a happy medium between two extremes.

For example, some far east countries worship ancestors to a degree that they let much arable land go uncultivated because some remote ancestors have been buried under it, while conversely many an American is so disinterested that he does not know the maiden name of his mother.

Also, there is the man who is so proud of his ancestry that he feels it totally unnecessary to accomplish anything of importance himself, while another of standing and accomplishment in his community is so self-sufficient that he fears to have his ancestry traced lest somewhere back in the line will be found one who was hanged as a horse thief. This quoted phrase is one all too frequently directed at the genealogist attempting to clear up a family line. The self-made man idea has so taken hold of many Americans that they invariably reply to queries as to ancestors with, "It is not what your ancestors were or did but what you are and do that counts." While this is true, it is much more likely to be so if the individual knows that he has an honorable ancestry to perpetuate. Ancestors are the necessary concomitant of the existence of every individual.

Not to know what happened before we were born is to remain always a child . . . someone has aptly said "It is only a mule that has no pride of ancestry, nor hope of posterity."

Thomas Lincoln was a conspicuous failure, without education or desire for it, without innate good judgment or thrift. Yet Thomas was a product of good ancestry and possessed some quality responsible for his marriage to two fine women. One of these gave birth to Abraham Lincoln and implanted within him an intense desire for knowledge and education.

After her death and burial in the little cemetery in Spencer County, Indiana, he married another woman who recognized and fostered this desire of Abe's despite the active opposition of father Thomas. Just who it was that implanted the genes in his ancestral lines that developed and flowered in Abraham Lincoln is anybody's guess. For aught we know it may have been the man too cowardly to acknowledge the mother of Nancy Hanks as his offspring.

Delving into the history of American families discloses a very consistent pattern, the noble and ignoble, the intelligent and unintelligent, the provident and improvident, the stable and unstable, the rich and the poor, and this applies to our own lines as well as to the lines of others. In consequence, our genealogical search is for no other purpose than to establish an honest and as complete as possible history of the family.

Like many families, ours can boast a history of near maximum of honor, and a near minimum of dishonor.

* * * * *

The following is quoted from an unpublished book -- OTOE COUNTY PIONEERS 1854-1870, by R. E. Dale of the Nebraska State Historical Society, Lincoln, Nebr. 1956.

I--Herman Henry Hauptmann was born in the Province of Westphalia in the Kingdom of Prussia, Germany, January 31, 1803, and was well educated. He married Anna Catherine Isabella Rolf, also a native of Prussia. Their family of seven children were born in or near Bielefeld-Westphalia, Prussia: Albert, Elizabeth, Casper, Henry, Anna C.I., John Frederick, and William F.

After he came of age, Albert the oldest son came to America, and he soon wrote home urging his father and family to follow him to America. Herman Hauptmann came to America with his family in 1853, stopping first in Niagara County, New York. He was at that time 50 years old and his wife was only a few years younger. He soon removed to Jefferson County, Wisconsin, and in 1856 he came to Nebraska City.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Mr. Hauptmann settled on a claim in the southeastern part of Otoe Precinct, just north of the Nemaha County line, on which he filed pre-emption papers at the United States Land Office, August 30, 1858.

Mr. Hauptmann was listed in the territorial census of August 1856. Neither daughter was living at home, but there were three sons still at home, one of them past 21 years of age. His postoffice address was Bennett's Ferry.

According to the census of 1860, all the sons except Albert were living at home. Mr. Hauptmann's 160 acre farm was valued at $1,000.00, of which 40 acres were under cultivation. His farm implements were worth $50.00. His livestock, valued at $250.00, consisted of eight head of cattle, including four work oxen and three milk cows, as well as eight hogs. In 1859 he raised 60 bushels of wheat, 500 bushels of corn, 35 bushels of potatoes, eight bushels of buckwheat and he had put up eight tons of hay. He had 10 gallons of molasses made, and the family had sold 300 pounds of butter.

In March 1865 only two sons were still at home, Casper and William F. In June 1870, William was still living with his parents, although he had a family of his own. He probably worked his father's farm, too, although it was all in his father's name.

Herman H. Hauptmann's 160 acre farm was valued at $4,000.00, of which sixty acres were under cultivation and 10 acres was woodland. His farm implements were worth $400.00. His livestock consisted of four horses, two mules, six milch cows, 10 other cattle, and eight hogs. In 1869 he had raised 120 bushels of wheat, 900 bushels of corn, 300 bushels of oats and had put up 10 tons of hay. The family had sold 200 pounds of butter.

Mr. Hauptmann lived on his farm the remainder of his life, dying there November 30, 1886, at the age of 83 years. His widow was still living on the home place in 1889 at 83 years of age.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Mrs. Anna Catherine Hauptmann, widow of Herman H. Hauptmann, died at the home of her son Albert H. Hauptmann, on July 12, 1893, being about 86 years of age. She was survived by five children: Albert, Anna, Elizabeth, John Frederick, and William Frederick.

II--Albert H. Hauptmann, eldest child of Herman H. Hauptmann and Anna Catherine Rolf Hauptmann, was born in the Province of Westphalia, Prussia, January 7, 1829. He came to America as a young man, stopping near Saratoga Springs, New York where he worked as a farm laborer. He wrote home urging his parents to come and they landed in America in 1853.

Albert Hauptmann moved to Jefferson County, Wisconsin in 1854, and his parents and their family followed the next year. There he married Miss Anna Margareta Ilsabein Jacobsmeyer, born in Prussia April 2, 1838, who had come to America with friends at the age of 15. They then set out for Nebraska by team and wagon, arriving at Nebraska City, June 2, 1856. They at once settled on a claim in southeastern Otoe Precinct, just north of the Nemaha County line, a little west of his father's claim. He filed pre-emption papers on his claim August 26, 1858. He was listed in the territorial census of August 1856 with his wife and another man over 21 years of age. This was probably a brother who may have been helping put up his log cabin.

In June 1860 he had a three year old daughter, Anna. Another daughter, Louisa, had died in August 1859 when but a year old. Mr. Hauptmann had a 160 acre farm valued at $1,000.00 of which 40 acres were under cultivation. His farm implements were worth $75.00. His livestock, worth $200.00, consisted of a yoke of oxen, three milch cows, three other cattle and eight hogs.

During the previous year he had raised 30 bushels of wheat, 300 bushels of corn, 100 bushels of potatoes and had put up eight tons of hay. The family had sold 150 pounds of butter.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Mr. Hauptmann worked elsewhere when not busy on his own farm. At the time Silas E. Smith died in the latter part of 1863 he was developing a farm a little to the west of Nebraska City. At the time he died Albert was employed by him.

In March 1865 there were two more children in the family, Harmon and John, aged three and two, respectively. In June 1870 there were two more children, Charles and Lydia, aged at that time four and one. All their children were born in Nebraska. Mr. Hauptmann in 1870 owned 160 acres of land valued at $2,500.00, of which 86 acres were under cultivation and eight acres were in woodland. His farm implements were worth $100. He also owned five horses, four milch cows, eight other cattle and 30 hogs. In 1869 he had raised 300 bushels of wheat, 2,000 bushels of corn, had put up 25 tons of hay and had sold $10.00 worth of fruit.

The 1880 census listed Albert Hauptmann living in Otoe Precinct as 51 years of age and Anna Margareta, his wife, as 42. Their seven children were still at home: Anna 23 years of age, Harmon 19, John Henry 17, Charles 14, Lydia 10, Theodore 7, and Hannah 3. His wife died September 14, 1888, at about 50 years of age.

He and his wife were members of the German Methodist Church and he voted as a Republican. Eight children survived her. Anna wife of William Jewell of Nemaha County. Harmon A., John Henry, Charles E., Lydia, Theodore, Hannah, and Maggie. Albert Hauptmann was living in 1889. He was still living in July 1893.

In portraits of Otoe and Cass County, the wife of Herman Henry Hauptmann was listed as Anna Margareta Islabince Hauptmann, while others have thought it to be Anna Caroline Islabinee Hauptmann, etc., etc. This writer after much research, believes the name to be Anna Catherine Isabella (Rolf) Hauptmann. I have found in the census of 1860, her name listed as Anna C. and in the 1870 census as E. C., such as Emma Catherine. The 1880 census lists her as Annie C., while in the autobiography of Frederick A. Stukenholtz, she is listed as Anna Catherine Ilabine Hauptmann. John Klone before his death told Herman Ray Hauptman that his mother Anna and Anna Catherine Hauptmann were sisters and that their maiden name was Rolf. This is partially substantiated by a photograph of Anna Klone, which stated she was Louis O. Hauptman's great aunt, and we have come up with a possible brother to them, a Charly Rolf.

John Henry Hauptman recited to his son Charles A. Hauptman, on December 31, 1937, that his grandmother's name was Rohlfe, and that his mother's name was Anna Margareta Ilsabein Jacobsmeier.

II--Mary Elizabeth Hauptmann was married to Frederick A. Stukenholtz. Their home was also in Otoe Precinct, one mile north of the Julian corner.

II--Casper Hauptmann, third child of Herman and Anna Catherine Isabella (Rolf) Hauptmann, was born in Prussia in 1833 and came to America with his parents in 1853. He was recorded in the census of 1860 and again in 1865 as living in his father's family. By 1870 he had married. His wife Margarette was 22 years of age, and was born in Germany. There were two children at that time, both born in Nebraska. A son Frederick was two years old and a daughter Elizabeth one year old.

Casper Hauptmann was living in Otoe Precinct. He owned 160 acres of land valued at $3,500.00, all under cultivation. His farm implements were worth $100.00. He owned two mules, three milch cows, seven other cattle and two hogs, his livestock being valued at $350.00. In 1869 he had raised 1,200 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of oats, 150 bushels of potatoes, and had put up 10 tons of hay. The family also sold 50 pounds of butter during the year.

Casper Hauptmann died at his home near Camp Creek May 19, 1890, at about 56 years of age. He was survived by his wife and six children.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Casper Hauptmann had married Miss Margarette Reichers, daughter of Henry Reichers, who lived near Humboldt, on November 4, 1867. Her obituary stated that she was born in Kentucky, Germany, March 19, 1848, and came to America in 1856. Census records stated that she was born in Kentucky. She outlived her husband 27 years, dying at her home near Julian on July 25, 1917, at 69 years of age.

II--Henry Peter Hauptmann, fourth child of Herman H. and Anna Catherine Isabella Hauptmann, was born in Prussia, February 9, 1836, and came to America with his father's family. He accompanied the family to Otoe County in 1856, and in 1860 he was still making his home with his parents. In March 1865, he was listed with a wife and year old son George. Wilhelmina his wife was called Mena in the 1865 census. Henry was 24 years old at that time. In 1870 there were two more sons: William aged four years, and Louis aged two.

Henry Hauptmann owned 250 acres of land in Otoe Precinct valued at $5,000.00, of which 146 acres were under cultivation and 20 acres in woodland. His farm implements were worth $300.00. He also owned four horses, four milch cows, 10 other cattle and one hog.

In 1869 he had raised 275 bushels of wheat, 1300 bushels of corn, 450 bushels of oats, 150 bushels of potatoes and had put up 20 tons of hay.

Mr. Hauptmann died March 4, 1890 at 54 years of age. Minnie Hauptmann survived her husband a great many years, dying at her home in Otoe Precinct February 1, 1909, being about 68 years of age.

II--Anna Catherine Isabella Hauptmann was married to Mr. William F. Sanders. They lived in Otoe Precinct also.

II--John Frederick Hauptmann, sixth child of Herman H. and Anna Catherine Isabella Hauptmann, was born in Prussia about 1842. He was called Fred. He came to Otoe County with his father's family in 1856, and was still living at home in 1860. He was living in Otoe Precinct in March 1865 with his wife Sarah Jane, who was 17 years old and a native of Illinois. In November 1867 he was recommended for jury service by the County Commissioners but apparently his name was not drawn. In 1870 they had a daughter Jennie, three years old.

Fred owned 147 acres of land in Otoe Precinct, valued at $3,000.00, of which 60 acres were under cultivation and 10 acres in woodland. His farm implements were worth $350.00. He also owned two horses, one milch cow, two other cattle, and one hog. In 1869 he had raised 160 bushels of wheat, 1,400 bushels of corn, 80 bushels of oats, 50 bushels of potatoes and had put up 15 tons of hay.

J. F. Hauptmann for some time engaged in business in Julian, later moving to Brock where he ran a repair shop. He died at his home in Brock on April 30, 1918, and was buried at Camp Creek Cemetery. Sarah Jane Scears, wife of Fred Hauptmann, died in 1892. She was born in 1847.

II--William Frederick Hauptmann, seventh child of Herman H. and Anna Catherine Isabella Hauptmann, was born in Prussia, in the year of 1845. He came to Otoe County with his parents and family in 1856. At 25 years of age in 1870, he was married but was still living in his father's family and was not recorded as having separate property. Apparently he worked his father's farm. His wife was Mary D., 20 years of age and also a native of Prussia. They had a daughter Sophia, one year old. He was still living in July 1893, at the time of his mother's death.

The following is quoted from PORTRAITS AND BIOGRAPHICAL ALBUM OF OTOE AND CASS COUNTIES. Published by Chapman Brothers, Chicago, 1889.

Albert Herman Hauptmann, one of the most substantial members of the farming community of Otoe Precinct, owns 240 acres of the most valuable land, pleasantly located in Section 35. He is one of the nationality which has done so much in the development of the great State of Nebraska, of German birth and ancestry, his early home being in the Province of Westphalia, Prussia where he first opened his eyes to the light January 7, 1829.

Herman H. and Anna Catherine Isabella (Rolf) Hauptmann, the parents of our subject, were also natives of Prussia. The father was born in the little Province of Westphalia, living there until after his marriage and the birth of his children.

In the year 1853, all the family came to the United States, settling first in Niagara County, N. Y. Thence, not long afterwards they moved to Jefferson County Wisconsin, and the year following to Nebraska.

Albert, our subject, had however preceded his parents to America and it was through his persuasions that they joined him here. The father was a well educated man, and both parents belonged to the higher classes. Upon coming to the West they crossed the Missouri River on the first day of July 1856, at a point upon which now stands Nebraska City, the site of which was then occupied by only a few wooden houses.

The father pre-empted 160 acres of land embracing the northeast quarter of Section 35, building up a homestead which is now occupied by his grandson George E. Hauptman, and where the aged grandmother is still living, being now 83 years old. The father died November 30, 1886, at the age of 83 years and 10 months.

The parental family included seven children, namely Albert our subject; Elizabeth, Casper, Henry, Anna, John Frederick, and William F. They are all well to do and residents of Nebraska. Albert was 22 years of age when he came to America. He acquired an excellent education in his native tongue, his father being in good circumstances and able to give his children the best advantages. Young Hauptmann when first setting foot upon American soil employed himself at farming in the vicinity of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and not long afterward wrote back to his parents urging them to join him in America, and they did so before he came on to Nebraska.

They lived for a time near Lockport, N. Y. and Albert preceded them to Jefferson County, Wis. In 1854, they joined him 18 months later. Our subject, while a resident of Wisconsin was united in marriage to Miss Anna Margareta Ilsabein Jacobs-meyer, who like her husband was a native of Prussia and born April 2, 1838. She came to America with friends when a young girl of just 15 years.

Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hauptmann started for Nebraska, arriving in Nebraska City on the second of June 1856, the journey being made by team (oxen). Our subject at once pre-empted 160 acres of land and for many years thereafter was, with his estimable wife, industriously employed in building up the home-stand. His industry and perseverance met with their legitimate reward, he being now surrounded with all the comforts of life with a prospect of a competence for his old age.

He purchased additional land in 1878, and has brought the whole to a good state of cultivation, erecting thereon substantial and convenient buildings. The household circle of our subject and his estimable wife was completed by the birth of nine children, who with the exception of a daughter, Louisa, who died when an infant, are all living. They are named, respectively, Anna, Harmon Albert, John Henry, Charles E., Lydia, Theodore, Hannah M. and Maggie. Anna is the wife of William Jewell, of Nemaha County and the mother of three children, Lydia, Arley, and Nettie. The others are at home with their parents.

Mr. Hauptmann is a member in good standing of the German Methodist Episcopal Church and politically, votes with the Republican party. He has never sought official honors, although officiating on the school board of his precinct.

His good wife and mother of their children died September 14, 1888, and is buried in Lee Cemetery, Camp Creek, this Precinct.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Albert Herman Hauptmann in talking of his experiences with his grandson Herman Ray, recounted that he worked his way across the Atlantic for transportation fare on a sailing vessel. It was winter and the weather was bad, there was no heat on board ship except for a stove in the captain's office. Ice froze on the rigging and had to be cut off all the way across. It was very cold and a most difficult crossing which took almost three months.

After arriving in New York City, he tried employment as a cigar maker, as that was the only job available, was soon fired. He then tried farming at Saratoga Springs, New York (close to Niagara Falls but he never got to see the falls). Moved to Wisconsin after about one year. Here he froze his feet while cutting wood for room and board, as he had no overshoes. It also was a very hard winter. Lost his job because he couldn't work with frozen feet.

Was married in 1855, and later traveled to Nebraska by covered wagon and a team of oxen. In Nebraska territory one of the oxen got in a creek and died so they could travel no farther west, so stayed in eastern Nebraska. Here Albert claimed all of the land from the Missouri River Bottom west to Eleventh Street, Highway 73-75, and gave it to his father and brothers when they arrived in Nebraska in 1856.

Herman Ray recalls his grandfather told him how he was called up for the draft in Prussia, but failed to pass the examination as being too light, the second time the same, but was told the next time we will take you anyway. But Albert had dreams of travel and a new world, so before being called up a third time, he left for America. It was with a great deal of emotion that he related this to his grandson.

Albert apparently liked what he found here as he induced his parents and other members of the family to follow him to America. It is believed that Albert and Anna Margareta intended to go to York County, where their aunt Mrs. Anna Rolf Klone and family settled. But because one of the oxen got in the creek and died, it was decided that the beautiful rolling hills of prairie and the timbered valleys of Otoe Precinct in Otoe County were to become the family home.

25, 1950; m. Sarah (Sadie) Elizabeth Cooper in 1891; b. Febr. 29, 1872, at Pawnee City, Nebraska; d. Aug. 4, 1941.

H. A., or Harmon as he was called, was a farmer, cattle buyer, and owned a butcher shop in Julian at one time.

Was an active member of the United Brethren Church, sang in the choir; was an active lodge member, Masons, Odd Fellows, Royal Highlanders, Elks. Eagles, Moose, and Woodmen of the World. Harmon was listed as A.H. in the census, which would have made him Albert Harmon Jr. Sarah was a Rebekah and Eastern Star, and all six daughters were Stars. They raised nine children, including one set of twins. All reached adulthood and had families of their own, except Vina who had no children.

Harmon in talking to his daughter Vina one time in later years said Pa came to Nebraska and took a homestead. The homestead is still in the family. Theo got it, and, well, he met, I don't know, Ma on the way over here or they met anyway and they settled on this homestead. Probably met on the boat.

Well, they took this homestead, they built a shack, I guess a shack. And well, what I can remember, just Annie and I, I was about two or three, born in this shack. What I can remember, one day I was playing outdoors. The dog barked. I saw some Indians coming; that was in about 1863, and of course Mama saw them coming and she locked the door. I ran to the back door and she had locked that and I run to the front door and finally got in. Ma almost locked me out! We kids crawled under the bed. They surrounded the house. The Chief said, say open the door, but they finally went away, went to the neighbor's house about 20 rods away and camped there all night. Probably Pawnees, they were mean, and the next day they pulled out. We locked the doors see, didn't open the door.

THE FAMILY OF MARY ELIZABETH
HAUPTMANN AND HER HUSBAND
FREDERICK A. STUCKENHOLTZ

II--Mary Elizabeth Hauptmann; b. Dec. 24, 1831;
d. July 9, 1919; m. Frederick A. Stukenholtz in 1854; b. Oct. 2, 1831 near Herford Prussia; d.
Nov. 25, 1895 near Julian, Nebr. Came to America in 1851.

Quoting in part from Otoe and Cass County Portraits, published in 1889, it says "While at Lockport, N. Y., our subject Frederick made the acquaintance of Anna M. E. Hauptmann, the daughter of Herman and Catherine Hauptmann. Mary Elizabeth was the second of seven children born to them in their native land, and accompanied them to America, she being at the time about 20 years of age.

"In 1856 Mr. and Mrs. Stukenholtz migrated to Jefferson County, Wisconsin, but the following year came to Nebraska, settling on the unbroken prairie, which was at that time entirely destitute of houses, homes, churches, schools, government or law, and almost of settlers.

Life was held very cheap, and a shooting caused little or no remark. He took up a claim of 80 acres, and went to work with the splendid result that is apparent to all by a glance at his admirably cultivated and fertile, productive farm.

"The family circle of our subject included eight children, viz: an infant stillborn; Annie P., Harmon H. (both deceased); Mary E., John F.,
Charles A., Ida (deceased), and Carrie. Mary E. is married to John Wilberger of Otoe Precinct, and they have three little ones whose names are Sterling E., Nelson and Charles R. Carrie is the wife of John Maag, of this Precinct, and is the mother of one child, Ethel M."

Mrs. Glen Garrabrant's (Ruth O. Stukenholtz) biography has been in PERSONALITIES OF THE WEST AND MID-WEST, 1970, 1971, and 1972 editions. She has also been listed in DICTIONARY OF INTERNATIONAL BIOGRAPHIES. Her biography will appear in the WORLD WHO'S WHO OF WOMEN in the 1974 edition. Was COLORADO TEACHER OF THE YEAR in 1972, and one of the five NATIONAL FINALISTS.

Mrs. Garrabrant has stated that her mother was a firm believer in education and that her older sister Lila taught her at home when she was four; the next year she attended Harmony district 53, country school, being put in the second grade with two boys. She graduated from high school (Nebraska City) and college as the youngest in her class. Her bachelor's degree was earned at Peru State Teachers College. She could not find a teaching position after graduation so she decided to make good use of her time by getting her master's degree, which she earned at the University of Denver.

She started her teaching career at Lamar. During her three years with the system she taught mathematics, one year at each of the elementary, junior high and high school levels. An offer as principal of the high school in Dix, Nebraska, drew her back to her native state.

It was in Dix that she met Glen Garrabrant, another young high school teacher. After their marriage they moved to Hugo, Colorado.

Mrs. Garrabrant left the teaching profession long enough to have a family. When her two daughters were old enough to start school, she joined her husband on the faculty of Hugo High School, teaching mathematics and biology. She has been teaching in Hugo for 25 years, and attesting to her great teaching ability is the multitude of testimonies from her former pupils.

Away from school she is active in the Hugo United Methodist Church. She has been a 4-H leader and has filled several stations of the Order of the Eastern Star. She also does volunteer work at the hospital. In her free time she enjoys gardening, and is an amateur artist and takes much pleasure in painting.

HERE IS THE STORY OF THE ROMANCE OF WILLIAM AND MARY AS TOLD BY THEIR YOUNGEST DAUGHTER IRMA (HAUPTMAN) LATSCH.

When my mother Mary Dora Gutzmer was a young girl she lived on a farm near Swanton, Nebraska. Whenever her family had wheat or corn or whatever to sell they hauled it by wagon to Nebraska City or if they wanted wheat ground into flour this is where the wheat was ground.

Many times my mother made the trip to Nebraska City with her parents and helped in the buying of groceries and materials, Wessels store was the store they patronized. My mother mentioned that she would like to work at Mr. Wessels store, so it was agreed upon by Mr. Wessel and Granddad that Mother could work part time in the store and live with the Wessel family and help with the evening meal, wash dishes and help care for the children in the evenings. Mother loved this arrangement and learned a lot about cooking, caring for children and store work.

In the spring Mother was needed at home in Swanton. In July 1868 my father William was talking with Mr. Wessel and said he was looking for a wife and wanted to know where the girl lived that had worked for him at the store. He was told that she had gone home and directions were given my father on how to get to her home near Swanton. So with his team of horses and a lumber wagon, he drove the 100 miles or so to see the girl.

When he arrived it was haying time. After he looked over the situation, the first thing he must do was to win over the girl's father. William told Mr. Gutzmer of his intention of marrying his daughter Mary. Father helped with the haying. He was a strong, desirable young man, a willing worker and especially good with horses. It all pleased Grandfather very much and he gave his consent to the marriage. Next he won over the girl and also her mother and then the wedding on July 10, 1868. Then they loaded up Mother's belongings and some wedding gifts and they were on their way back to Nebraska City (Otoe County) to live.

Father was still living with his parents and farming the home place. Father told his bride he had no money to buy her a wedding ring, but would do so with the first load of wheat he sold, which he did; and today my sister Lydia is still wearing this ring.

They lived with his parents for about two years, then homesteaded about 4 miles from Mother's parents and about two miles Southeast of Swanton, Nebraska. Their marriage took place on July 10, 1868, Mother was 18 and Father was 22. They lived on the home place until 1907, raising nine children. They then moved to Lincoln, Nebraska, living there until Father died June 2, 1918, and Mother died on December 31, 1920.

THE HAUPTMANN FAMILY

Sooner or later, a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take. He learns that it doesn't pay to be a sensitive soul, that he should deliberately let some things go over his head.

He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses out. He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then, and that he should not take the other fellow's grouch too seriously. He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight. He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

He learns that all people are human, and that it doesn't do any harm to smile and say "Good Morning", even if it is raining. He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is and also learns that they have brains that are as good if not better than his; also that hard work and not cleverness is the secret to success. He learns to sympathize with the youngster coming into the business because he remembers how bewildered he was when he first started out.

He learns not to worry when he strikes out because experience has shown him that if he always gives his best, his average will break pretty well. He learns that no man ever got to first base alone, and that it is only through cooperative effort that we move on to better things. He learns that the boss is not a monster trying to work him to death for little or nothing. He learns that folks are not any harder to get along with in one place than they are in another and that the getting along depends about 98 per cent on his own behavior.

Life is neither good nor evil in itself; it is the scene of good and evil according as you give them room, and if you have lived a day you have seen everything. One day is equal to all days. There is no other light, no other night, this sun, this moon, these stars, the way they are arranged, all is the very same your ancestors enjoyed and that will entertain your grandchildren, your ancestors beheld no other one, nor shall your nephews see another.

--Manilius.

To know one another cannot mean to know everything about each other; it means to feel mutual affection and confidence and to believe in one another.

--Albert Schweitzer.

THIS DAY IS THINE

This day is thine, a shining gift from heaven,
Gleaned for thy use from treasures of time,
Given in trust to hold until the even.
This day is thine to be what thou shall make it.
Hidden in self or used in service fine.
When thou shalt bring it back to him who gave it.
What will it be this golden day of thine?
This day is thine, thy yesterdays are finished,
Soon will the present join the changeless past.
Will its bright hours be greater for thy keeping,
Or by the dreaded rust of waste o'er cast?
This day is thine from dawn till setting sun,
May thou be even, like a worthy steward, and Hear in thy heart the Masters words well done.
